Summer
Reading
Assignment

10th grade Read & Respond.

READ Outliers: The Story of Success by Malcolm Gladwell.

This collection of case studies reveal that the factors that lead to achievement and success are connected across cultures and time periods.

RESPOND: Complete one of the following projects.

Project options:

-1- Create a top 5 list of the best moments or revelations in the book. (Creativity is encouraged. Neatness is required.) You may use Notability or Google Docs. Once school begins, you will be able to submit your project to CANVAS or as a hard copy paper.

-2- Write a one-page (double spaced) response to the book. Response writing can include your thoughts or feelings on the subject and will be written in first person. Please type your essay. You will be given the opportunity to submit this assignment to CANVAS or print a hard copy during the first two weeks of the school year. Always proofread before you share your writing.

-3- Do you prefer reading fiction or nonfiction literature? Why? Write two strong paragraphs on this topic. Give reasons to support your preference. Please type your response. You will be given the option to submit your assignment through CANVAS or as a hard copy during the first two weeks of the school year.
